

- to create guidelines, criteria, key recommendations, and checklists aimed to implement good environmental and sustainable practices in medical laboratories
- to guide EFLM National Societies and clinical laboratories in the transition to Green Labs
- to monitor the status of laboratories issued biennial Green Labs certification along the years allowing laboratories to improve their conditions through a continuous improvement process

The EFLM Task Force for Green and Sustainable Laboratories

Green Labs

EFLM guidelines for Green and Sustainable Medical Laboratories

ISBN 979-12-210-1814-1

24 National Experts

A group of National Green Lab Experts have been formed by the TF-GSL to promote and implement sustainable practices in laboratories within their National Societies and to act as mentors for those undergoing the EFLM certification process to become Green & Sustainable Labs

The Green Deal aims to make EU the world's 1st climate-neutral continent by 2050

Contribution of Laboratory Medicine to sustainable healthcare system: ensure that resources are used efficiently from ecological, social and economical perspectives while providing high quality services to patients and clinicians

EFLM TF-GSL MISSION IS IMPLEMENTATION OF SUSTAINABLE PRACTICES IN MEDICAL LABORATORIES: SWITCHING CLINICAL LABORATORIES TO GREEN LABS!

The EFLM Green Labs certification programme!

A special issue of CCLM is dedicated to the lectures and contributions presented at the EFLM 3rd Strategic Conference 2022 "Implementing Emerging Technologies, IVDR, and Sustainable Practices in Smart and Green Medical Laboratories. Opportunities and Challenges

